

Cisco offers quick Contact Center deployment solution to help organizations during COVID-19 pandemic

If your business is facing high call volumes and needs to deploy a contact center at scale, quickly, Cisco can help. Right now organizations can sign up for a quick-to-deploy 90-day subscription offer for Webex Contact Center, the technology giant's secure and native cloud contact center solution. Included in the subscription are a set of omnichannel, routing and reporting capabilities for up to 1,000 concurrent agents with no minimum volume or contract terms. Most deployments can be completed in 5 business days.
